Biography

Helene Chow is a consultant at CFN Lawyers LLP and a core member of the firm's Entertainment and Media practice. She advises clients across the business and creative spectrum, from early-stage fundraising and Series A to C rounds, to IPOs on the Hong Kong Main Board. Her key practice areas include technology, entertainment and media, equity financing, and private client dispute resolution.

Known for her strategic and empathetic approach, Helene serves as a trusted advisor to founders, cultural figures, and public personalities in their career growth and personal affairs. She is often called upon to offer guidance in navigating sensitive family, inheritance, and business conflicts, where discretion and reputational care are essential. As an accredited mediator, she offers nuanced dispute resolution that helps clients move forward both in creative business and personal life.

Helene is familiar with cross-border matters between Hong Kong and Taiwan, with particular experience in complex probate and matrimonial issues involving high-net-worth individuals and prominent families.
